CEDAR STREET RULES AND REGULATIONS

On behalf of the Board of Directors, welcome to Cedar St Theatre! We sincerely thank you for coming and we hope you enjoy the audition process.

For your protection as well as our own, we have made it mandatory for all auditioners to read the following rules and regulations. Sign, date and return this form to the director before the audition

Cedar St Theatre relies solely on our members for the success of all our productions. We like to thank our theatre as a non-paying professional group and expect you to act accordingly. Since each individual involved is vital to the success of the production we ask that the following guidelines be read and adhered to at all times.

Actors may be asked to participate in a "set change" or some other "off stage" type of activity during the show.

Actors and crew members may be asked to sell program ads to help offset the cost of the production.

ALL cast members and ALL crew members will assist in the set strike immediately following the last show.

All rehearsals are mandatory. Exceptions to this rule is solely at the discretion of the director.

Cedar St Theatre will not be liable for ANY stolen, damaged or lost personal property

All actors are required to supply their own make up.

Complimentary tickets will not be given to anyone without the permission of President of the Board.

No alcohol or drugs of any kind will be allowed in the theatre or rehearsals.

Smoking will be allowed in designated areas only.

Rehearsal and performance schedules will be distributed by the director.

If you have any questions, contact the director or stage manager.

NOTICE TO ALL PERFORMERS

Cedar St Theatre requires the following refundable deposits for scripts and chorus books:

Scripts----$10.00

Chorus Books---$15.00

I have read the Cedar St Rules and Regulations and will abide by them.
